Archipiélago de Revillagigedo / Socorro Island

Have you ever felt the immensity of the ocean, the sense of being a small part of something truly grand? That's the feeling that washes over you in the Revillagigedo Islands. Rising from the deep Pacific, these volcanic peaks are a sanctuary for marine life found nowhere else on Earth.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Revillagigedo Archipelago, located 250 miles off the southern coast of Baja California, Mexico, blurs the boundaries between the observer and the observed. Socorro Island, a jewel in the archipelago's crown, is a testament to the power and beauty of the natural world. Here, you're not just watching nature; you are immersed in it.

Imagine drifting through the clear waters, surrounded by a kaleidoscope of life. Schools of hammerhead sharks glide effortlessly by, their distinctive silhouettes a testament to the unique biodiversity of these islands. Giant schools of jacks, barracuda, tuna, and wahoo shimmer and swirl around you, a dazzling display of the ocean's abundance. And the sharks! You can encounter Galapagos, silky, whitetip reef, silvertip, and blacktip sharks, each playing a vital role in the oceanic ecosystem. A sleek tiger shark might materialize from the blue, its distinctive stripes a flash of wild beauty. Playful dolphins, curious and intelligent, often approach divers, eager to interact. And then there are the mantas – the stars of the show. With their enormous wings, these majestic creatures perform an underwater ballet, gliding and swirling with effortless grace. They circle and dance, seemingly welcoming you to their world.

Other animal encounters include humpback whales from mid-February to mid-April. During this time, the haunting songs of males fill the water, a symphony of the deep. Surface sightings are common. Whale sharks can be seen in November, December, and May. The dramatic display of bait balls and false orcas can add to the May magic.

A trip to Revillagigedo is more than just a dive; it's a pilgrimage to where the ocean's wonders unfold before you. We are excited to share this incredible destination with you.

PLEASE NOTE: Revillagigedo park rules prohibit the use of knives and flashlights. It also bans night dives. Lights attached to a camera are permitted.

Diving

We require all divers to be open-water certified.

WE STRONGLY ADVISE A MINIMUM OF 50 LOGGED DIVES FOR REVILLAGIGEDO, AS THE DIVING CAN BE CHALLENGING. GOOD BUOYANCY SKILLS ARE CRUCIAL.

Our dive platforms are meticulously arranged, with each diver assigned a designated dive station.

On board, a well-equipped camera table, with numerous power outlets and access to compressed air is available. We have fire-retardant Lipo bags for charging lithium batteries.

We furnish 80 cubic ft. aluminum tanks compatible with both DIN and yoke connections, along with weights and belts for divers' convenience.

Our diving operations utilize two 18-foot Achilles inflatable pangas, each accompanied by a vigilant driver who constantly monitors for emerging bubbles. The transfer from the boat to the dive site is typically brief, facilitated by sturdy and user-friendly ladders on the pangas.

Passengers are organized into three groups, each led by a divemaster for the dive excursions. Upon receiving a detailed dive briefing, each group gears up, embarks on the panga, and enters the water with a backroll entry. Our attentive crew is available to assist divers with any physical limitations they may have. Group dives are conducted, and at the conclusion of the dive, the panga will approach each diver. Weight belts and BCDs are removed and lifted into the boat by the driver, and divers then remove their fins before boarding the vessel. Upon returning to the main boat, the crew will stow the gear and can hand back any cameras to the divers.

Proof of diving certification and dive insurance is required.

Without proof, you will not be able to dive.
NO EXCEPTIONS!

Given the demanding nature of diving, participants must maintain good physical health, engage in regular diving activities, and have recent diving experience. Our divemasters and instructors serve as guides solely and are not responsible for providing diving instruction or supervising guests lacking fundamental buoyancy skills. It is imperative that each diver comprehends their own diving proficiencies and limitations.

For those requiring more personalized attention during their diving ventures, booking a private divemaster is recommended at a rate of $750. To secure a private divemaster, please coordinate this arrangement at least 30 days before your scheduled trip by emailing us at info@MexicoLiveaboards.com.

Communications

Our vessels maintain daily radio communication with our US office, and we are ready for constant communication in the event of an emergency. Your family and friends can contact our office by phone or WhatsApp at +1 602 558 9580 in an emergency. Our office staff will immediately assist your family and friends in getting messages to you.

Wi-Fi

We have limited Wi-Fi available for purchase at $50 per device. This provides full internet access within a 10-mile radius of the island and San Jose del Cabo.

While near the islands, guests can post to social media, access email, download videos, make WhatsApp calls, etc.

It is not available during the open ocean crossing.

Food & Beverage

This is one of the things that our liveaboards are best known for ... the food!

Each day starts early with a continental breakfast with fresh fruit, cereals, bagels, yogurt, breads, and freshly brewed coffee. After the first dive, guests enjoy a plated, made-to-order breakfast. After the second dive, guests will be served a hot homemade soup followed by a hot plated lunch. We serve a large snack in the afternoon, often sandwiches, ceviche, fruit, cheeses, and more. For dinner, guests enjoy a three-course, plated meal with a salad, entrée, and homemade dessert. Hot and cold beverages are always available, including canned soft drinks.

Divers also enjoy complimentary beer and wine after their last dive of the day.

Our chefs can accommodate most special dietary needs, including gluten-free and vegan, with a wonderful variety of delicious options.

Special Occasions

Please let us know if you are celebrating a special occasion such as a birthday or anniversary. We would love to celebrate it with you.

Our Crew

The only thing better than the food aboard Rocio del Mar and Quino del Mar is THE CREW! Our captain, steward, panga drivers, divemasters, and engineer work together as a team to ensure your comfort and safety, so you come away feeling like you have a new family in Mexico.

Please let your crew know if there's anything you want or need at any time during your trip. No request is too big, and no job is too small.

Getting to the Boat

Our vessels are at Marina Puerto Los Cabos in San Jose del Cabo.

Marina Puerto los Cabos
Blvd. Mar de Cortes s/n
23403 San José del Cabo

Guests can fly into San Jose del Cabo (airport code SJD). Guests are responsible for their transportation to and from the boat. The marina is about 25 minutes from the airport.

Taxis are easy to use. You will enter a lobby after you collect your bags and leave customs. To the left of the lobby, you will see a counter that says TAXI. You can book a taxi and pay for it there via cash or credit card. The cost is approximately $60 for two people.

The boat will be at the fuel dock directly next to the El Ganzo Hotel. If the boat is not there, our crew will meet you at the fuel dock and bring you to the boat.

El Ganzo Hotel
Blvd. Tiburon s/n
La Playita
23402 San Jose del Cabo

Boarding begins at 5pm. Please do not board early, as the crew is busy getting the boat ready for you. If you arrive early and want to walk around San Jose del Cabo, you can take a taxi to the El Encanto Inn. The El Encanto Inn is in the heart of the Art District of the historic center of San Jose del Cabo. They are happy to store your luggage for you for $7. The hotel is centrally located, has a restaurant and bar, and is surrounded by plenty of shops and restaurants.

When you are ready to go to the boat, the staff at El Encanto Inn can call a taxi.

The La Marina Inn is across the street from the El Ganzo Hotel if you prefer to go directly to the marina. It is a quaint hotel with a bar/restaurant, and they are happy for you to stop by while you wait to board.

DIRECTIONS FROM THE AIRPORT AND DOWNTOWN SAN JOSE DEL CABO

Marina Puerto Los Cabos is about a 25-minute taxi ride from the airport and 15 minutes from downtown San Jose del Cabo. Please drive toward the small fishing town of "La Playita" and El Ganzo Hotel. Once in the marina area, you will drive on a long, winding road with roundabouts. To your right, you will see a tall, beige building called MARINE GROUP and, on the other corner, an OXXO store. Turn right at the Marine Group building and OXXO store. Keep driving toward El Ganzo Hotel.

Return

The boat will return to the marina during the night, and passengers must be ready to depart by 8:30 am on the last day of your trip. Our steward will serve a continental breakfast. Our crew will call taxis to get everyone to the airport or their hotel. We suggest flights departing 11am or later.

Before disembarking, please take a moment to carefully check your cabin, salon, dive deck, camera table, and wetsuit rack for any personal belongings. Retrieving and shipping forgotten items from Mexico is time-consuming and costly, and we are unable to accommodate such requests. We appreciate your attention to this matter and thank you for your understanding.

All guests are REQUIRED to have dive/medical evacuation insurance. Dive insurance can be purchased through our website from Divers Alert Network. If you have private health insurance coverage for dive accidents/evacuation, provide only the page that states coverage for a scuba diving accident (including evacuation) and the declaration page showing you are the owner of the policy and policy number.

You will be at sea, and though it can often be calm, please be prepared for rough seas. Several over-the-counter remedies can help you. If you have a propensity to motion sickness or are concerned that you might develop symptoms, please prepare yourself with preventive measures before departure. Please consult your physician about what will work best for you.

Unforeseen Events / Trip Insurance / Trip Interruption

Rocio del Mar and Quino del Mar is of the utmost seaworthiness and approved by the US Coast Guard and the Mexican Coast Guard. She is equipped with state-of-the-art electronics and all necessary safety equipment.

Passenger safety is paramount; therefore, the captain has the sole discretion to change, delay, return early, or cancel the cruise if necessary. These reasons include, but are not limited to, adverse weather conditions, perils of the sea, acts of God, political disturbances, or force majeure.

We highly suggest trip insurance as it can reimburse you for unused, non-refundable, prepaid trip costs if you are prevented from taking your trip due to a covered reason.
